Dear Mr. / Brown:

Many thanks for your letters and attachments about appropriate treatment for people with environmental sensitivities.

I am looking forward to examining new approaches to addressing the needs of people who have environmental sensitivities and I will keep your comments in mind when I do.

With respect to your comments on the treatment of people in mental health facilities, I understand that J. Howard Danson, Director of the Mental Health Facilities Branch, has recently responded to your letter to him and will be replying in greater detail in the near future. I have asked Mr. Danson to keep me informed of his inquiries and to send me a copy of his response to you.

Thanks again for your letters and material.

Yours,

Evelyn Gigantes
